‘Paralysed Mood’

An exhibition in exploration of crossing continents, arriving in a new place and the moments of joy and of deep fatigue that a 21st century nomadic lifestyle can bring.

A video art, photography, performance and installation exhibition in Rothesay’s Bank of Ideas, 17 High Street, Rothesay, Isle of Bute.

Private View: 12pm, Saturday 27th July, 2019.

Following on from exhibitions in Senegal’s National Gallery of the Arts in Dakar and the Yaounde RAVY Biennale in Cameroon, this is Siregar’s first exhibition in Scotland, where she is now resident: a ‘new Scot’.

Siregar is bringing her unique practice to the recently launched multi-use space, the Bank of Ideas, in Rothesay. Siregar’s work includes a combination of found objects, video pieces, installation work, photography and performance art based on ancient ritual from her birthplace in North Sumatra, Indonesia.

Exhibition: Saturday 27th July - Saturday 17th August, 2019.
